LITURGY OF THE WORD

Fourth Sunday of Easter
Thinking about the Readings

1. Do I allow Jesus to shepherd me by listening to his voice in my prayers, in Scripture or in loved one?
2. How do I seek to recognize the voice of Jesus? How do I discern whether his voice or the voice of a false shepherd that beckons me?
3. Where do I experience the fullness of life? Where do I seek it?

Readings for 4th Sunday of Easter
April 26, 2026

First Reading: Acts 2:14a, 36-41

The promise is made to all.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:20b-25

Jesus bore our sins upon the cross.

Gospel: John 10:1-10

Jesus is the gate for the sheep.

DEVOTIONS

 Novena – Our Lady of Perpetual Help Tuesday, after the 8:30am Mass.
 Spanish Adoration & Prayer Group, Thursdays 6:00pm
 Holy Hour 9-10 – Thurs. (except holidays) after the 8:30 Mass, Divine Mercy, Rosary, Silent Prayer, Benediction.
 Holy Days – Same as Sundays (7:30am, 9:30am & 11:30am)
 Fatima Sundays—Every 3rd Sunday of the Month from May through October, 3-4:30pm.
 Litanies—After the 8:30am Mass

For Reflection:

He took the bread and saying the prayer of benediction, broke it. It was during the last action of the breaking of the bread that the companions recognized Jesus.

Today's good news

The first reading is taken from the Acts of the Apostles 2:14, 22-33 and concerns bearing witness to the "name" of Jesus, and the implications which this witnessing necessarily brings with it. Peter and the apostles answered their inquisitors by stating firmly their faith in Christ, and the lesson ends with reference to their joy at having been found worthy to endure trials for the name of Christ.

The second reading is from the first Letter of Peter 1:17-21. St. Peter says that we are sons of God because of his infinite mercy in sending Christ to us as our brother. So we can rightly call God our "Father." But we must behave as true, loyal sons, during our "time of exile" on this earth, for our merciful Father is also the absolutely just God who will judge each one of us "impartially according to our deeds" when we lay down our earthly life.

The Gospel is from St. Luke 24:13-35. It is the first day of the week after the great Jewish feast of the Passover and Jerusalem is trying to return to its normal routine. The shop keepers count their profits and the Temple priests congratulate themselves because they were able to kill the 'Galilean'. For the disciples and those who were 'foreigners' in Jerusalem, it is time to start to return to their own homes and their normal lives.

Curtains were closed and lights were dimmed not only due to the celebration of Jerusalem's solemn festival but also because everyone had hope that the man Jesus 'would be the One to redeem Israel' (Lk 24:21). The two disciples from Emmaus are to be found, along their journey, talking to 'Jesus in person', 'but their eyes were prevented from recognising Him' (Lk 24:16). Why did the Lord not tell the disciples straight away who He was? Indeed, in the dialogue that the liturgy presents to us today, it almost seems that Jesus did all He could to avoid revealing His true identity. Firstly, He pretended not to know what Cleopas and his companion were discussing and then He went on to 'explain to them the passages throughout scriptures that were about Himself' (Lk 24:27) but without making direct reference to Himself.

STEWARDSHIP

Stewardship Thought: The disciples on the road to Emmaus walked and talked with Jesus all day long, but it was not until they offered Him hospitality and He blessed and broke the bread that they recognized Him. Simple acts of loving kindness still reveal the presence of God in our midst.

Parish Sacrificial Giving (Regular Sunday Offering) In gratitude for the gifts we have received from God, the parishioners and visitors gave $21,579 ( 4/5) , Holy Thursday & Holy Land Shrines - $2,954 ,Good Friday $1,628, Easter $5,515 and $14,134.00 (4/12) for the ministries of St. Teresa. School collection amounted to $6, 414.00. Thank you for your continued support and generosity. God bless.

QUESTION OF THE WEEK?

How does the faith community nourish and support friendships

Think ahead!

Mother's day is May 10th
 Cards will be available in the narthex.
 All cards will be placed on the altar the entire month of May.
 Honor your mother, grandmother or someone important in your life!

Eucharistic Adoration

We will have an all day Eucharistic Adoration April 23rd from 9am to 6:30pm in the Chapel.

There will be the Spanish Holy Hour and Exposition from 5:30-6:30pm.

If anyone would like to sign up for an hour, please call Cheryl Kassack at: 321-383-1312 (H) 321-795-1456 (C)

SCHOOL NEWS

Brevard County 4H Speech Contest

This school year, our fourth, fifth, and sixth graders are once again participating in the Brevard County 4H Speech Contest.

After a classroom contest, our finalists will participate in a semi-final round where students will be selected to represent St. Teresa in the county contest.

We are looking for volunteers to serve as judges for the semi-final round being held on Tuesday, April 21st at 1pm.

If you are interested in helping out, please reach out to Mary McCrory at 321-267-1643 or email at info@stteresa-titusville.org. Thank you for your interest.

Third Sunday of Easter

The Readings for the Third Sunday of Easter

Jesus on the road to Emmaus is a story of one of the early resurrection appearances of Jesus after his crucifixion and the discovery of the empty tomb. Jesus joined two disciples who were walking from Jerusalem to Emmaus, about seven miles, and explained to them the prophecies of the Old Testament that were fulfilled in his death and resurrection. The disciples did not recognize Jesus until he broke bread with them at their destination, where they invited him to stay for dinner. Some claim that this story is difficult to match to the idea of a Sabbath resurrection after a Friday crucifixion, due to the restriction on traveling more than a "Sabbath day's journey".

The readings for the 3rd Sunday in Easter for Year encourage us to truly walk the path of discipleship. In the first reading Peter boldly proclaims the Good News. The psalm reminds us that God will guide us along the path of life. The second reading explains that Jesus Christ died so we could have new life. And in the gospel, two disciples encounter the risen Jesus on the road to Emmaus.

- ✂ The Road to Emmaus: Two disciples were walking to the village of Emmaus after Jesus' crucifixion and resurrection, when they were joined by a stranger who was actually Jesus himself. The theme of the Road to Emmaus is about recognizing the risen Christ in unexpected places and unexpected ways.
- ✂ Recognizing Jesus in the Breaking of the Bread: In the Gospel reading for the 3rd Sunday of Easter Year A, Jesus revealed himself to the disciples in the breaking of the bread. This theme emphasizes the importance of the Eucharist, and that Jesus is truly present in the bread and wine of the Eucharistic celebration.
- ✂ Witnessing and Testimony: Christians are called to be witnesses to the resurrection of Jesus, and to share their testimony of how their lives have been changed by their faith in him. This theme is reflected in the reading from Acts, in which Peter proclaims the good news of Jesus' resurrection to a crowd in Jerusalem.
- ✂ Discipleship: Christians are called to recognize Jesus in unexpected ways, to share their testimony of faith, to spread the good news of Jesus, and to study and apply the teachings of scripture in their lives. We are called to continual growth and transformation in the Christian faith. Being a disciple of Jesus involves a lifelong journey of learning, service, and devotion.
- ✂ Fellowship: We come together to share in the Eucharistic celebration, to remember the sacrifice of Jesus, and to be nourished by his presence in the bread and wine. We are not called to follow Jesus alone, but to be part of a community of believers who support and encourage one another in our faith.

St. Catherine of Siena      April 29th      Patron Saint of Nurses and Firefighters

Catherine, the youngest of twenty-five children, was born in Siena on March 25, 1347. During her youth she had to contend with great difficulties on the part of her parents. They were planning marriage for their favorite daughter; but Catherine, who at the age of seven had already taken a vow of virginity, re-fused. To break her resistance, her beautiful golden brown tresses were shorn to the very skin and she was forced to do the most menial tasks. Undone by her patience, mother and father finally relented and their child entered the Third Order of St. Dominic.

Unbelievable were her austerities, her miracles, her ecstasies. The reputation of her sanctity soon spread abroad; thousands came to see her, to be converted by her. The priests associated with her, having re-ceived extraordinary faculties of absorption, were unable to accommodate the crowds of penitents. She was a helper and a consoler in every need. As time went on, her influence reached out to secular and ecclesiastical matters. She made peace between worldly princes. The heads of Church and State bowed to her words. She weaned Italy away from an anti-pope, and made cardinals and princes promise allegiance to the rightful pontiff.

She journeyed to Avignon and persuaded Pope Gregory XI to return to Rome. Even though she barely reached the age of thirty-three her accomplishments place her among the great women of the Middle Ages. The virgin Catherine was espoused to Christ by a precious nuptial ring which, although visible only to her, always remained on her finger.

Third Sunday of Easter

1 Peter 1:17-21

Priceless Friends

Some things truly are priceless. You may pay a lot of your hard-earned income to have a home, furnish it for comfort, feed the people who live there, and enjoy the amenities of life. You know the cost of the things you own.

But some things are priceless—the children who play, the people who love you, experiences of friendship, the wonder of creation, fresh air, freedom, and faith.

At Easter it becomes evident that something else is priceless. We are. Jesus offered himself up to death for something that was priceless to him. The First Letter of Peter says, “You were ransomed from your futile conduct ... not with perishable things like silver or gold but with the precious blood of Christ.” Jesus’ own life was more precious than silver and gold, and he gave it up for what he valued: humanity.

At Easter we learn again how precious is human life. We come to a new realization of who we are and how much we mean to the God who made us. We are loved.

As we look around at other people, we see some we know well and some who are strangers. We see people we love and people we ignore. We see people in need and people of plenty. But if we see them as God sees them, we see people of value. Let us live in reverence of the life we have and the life we see. It is priceless.
