We go in peace.

Today's Good News

During the year the Church celebrates one by one the feasts of the saints. Today she joins them all in one festival. In addition to those whose names she knows, she recalls in a magnificent vision all the others "of all nations and tribes standing before the throne and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands, proclaiming Him who redeemed them in His Blood."

The feast of All Saints should inspire us with tremendous hope. Among the saints in heaven are some whom we have known. All lived on earth lives like our own. They were baptized, marked with the sign of faith, they were faithful to Christ's teaching and they have gone before us to the heavenly home whence they call on us to follow them. The Gospel of the Beatitudes, read today, while it shows their happiness, shows, too, the road that they followed; there is no other that will lead us whither they have gone.

The solemnity of All saints is dear to the hearts of the faithful, for it gives us a glimpse of God's promise of eternal life for all who put their hope in the Lord. As you continue to be built up into the Body of Christ, pattern your life on the Beatitudes, which are proclaimed in today's Gospel.

Today the Church celebrates all the saints: canonized or beatified, and the multitude of those who are in heaven enjoying the beatific vision that are only known to God. During the early centuries the Saints venerated by the Church were all martyrs. Later on the Popes set November 1 as the day for commemorating all the Saints. We all have this "universal call to holiness." What must we do in order to join the company of the saints in heaven? We "must follow in His footsteps and conform [our]selves to His image seeking the will of the Father in all things.

[We] must devote [our]selves with all [our] being to the glory of God and the service of [our] neighbor. In this way, the holiness of the People of God will grow into an abundant harvest of good, as is admirably shown by the life of so many saints in Church history"

Solemnity of All Saints

From Father Chris:

St. Teresa Church humbly asks for your prayers and support as we work to cover the unexpected and exceeding costs of paving our parking lot and refencing the ditch on the South side of the parking lot.

Two incidences have occurred lately that require the installation of a new fence. Any donation, no matter the amount, would be deeply appreciated and will help us complete this important project for our church community.

The new Parish Center roof, re-sealing of the parking lot and a few other projects totaled close to $200,000 in a short period of time.

Thank you for your generosity, kindness, and continued support of St. Teresa Church.

If you would like to donate, please use an envelope and write Church projects on it or you may also give online under church projects.

Thank you to those that have already donated to Church Projects - $109,098.00 to date.

Please make all checks payable to St. Teresa Church. God Bless!

This beautiful ceramic Nativity is now in the St Teresa Gift Shop.

Raffle tickets will be available in the Gift Shop now through

December 6th for $1.00 each.

The drawing will be held after the 11:30th.

Annual Baby Bottle Campaign

Our annual Baby Bottle Campaign for BETA's Pregnancy Center will end the last of October.

Kindly begin saving your coins and/or dollars or checks to put in the baby bottle(s). This drive helps a great deal to keep their doors open.

Do not place them back in the baskets by the exits. Your donations help them to keep their doors open. If you take a bottle but chose to not fill, please return the bottles for future use.

National Vocations Awareness Week November 1-7, 2026

The Catholic Church in the United States will celebrate National Vocations Awareness Week, November 1-7, 2026. This annual event is a special time for parishes in the United States to actively foster and pray for a culture of vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life.

Cardinal Joseph Tobin, the Chair of the US Bishops' Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life, and Vocations, reminds us that each of us in the Church has a key role to play in the witness of our vocation in ordinary circumstances, "As we go about our everyday life and most especially this week, we must keep vocations in our prayers, while, at the same time, being a mindful witness with our own vocation. We may never know how our lives may have an impact on someone else's story. Simply living out our call as disciples of Jesus Christ fully and joyfully in the world bears witness to the love of Christ as He generously bestows on each of us our own personal call."

National Vocations Awareness Week, sponsored by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops' (USCCB) Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life, and Vocations, is designed to help promote vocation awareness and to encourage young people to ask the question: "To what vocation in life is God calling me?" Parish and school communities across the nation are encouraged to include, during the first full week in November, prayer and special activities that focus on vocation awareness.

Observance of Vocation Awareness Week began in 1976 when the U.S. bishops designated the 28th Sunday of the year for the celebration.

It was later moved to Feast of the Baptism of the Lord in January.

The USCCB Committee on Clergy, Consecrated Life and Vocations moved the observance of National Vocation Awareness Week to November to engage Catholic schools and colleges more effectively in this effort.

All Saints and All Soul's Day

1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Spread the Word

When faith takes root it spreads. When you are truly touched by the mercy of God, you tell other people. You share your faith. They come to believe you because of your testimony.

In the business world, customers are some of the best agents for selling products. If you really like something you have bought, you tell other people and inspire them to get it too. In the secular world, this is a form of evangelization.

Paul, Timothy and Silvanus, writing to the Thessalonians, complimented them on their faith. It had taken root and it was spreading. The Thessalonians were telling the world about Christ, "For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth".

The Thessalonians had received the word in great affliction, and it brought them tremendous comfort. They shared their faith with others who needed to hear this Gospel of hope as well.

People undergoing any affliction may find comfort from the Gospel of Jesus, whom God raised from the dead and who delivers us from all adversity. If you have experienced peace through faith, and if you know someone suffering some affliction, you can do the world a favor. Proclaim the peace of Jesus Christ. Faith has taken root in your heart. Let it spread.

All Saints and All Soul's Day

There will be an All Souls Mass on Nov. 2nd at 7 PM in remembrance of all parishioners who have died this past year. Candles will be lit by relatives or friends of the deceased loved ones.

Anyone that wants to light a candle for any deceased may do so after the names of this past year are called.

Others are also invited to light a candle after the names are called for those from this past year.

All Soul's Day envelopes are available in the back of the church. If you would like to have loved ones names included in the Novena, please return as soon as possible that they may be placed on the altar.

All Saints' Day

All Saints' Day is a solemn holy day of the Catholic Church celebrated annually on November 1. The day is dedicated to the saints of the Church, that is, all those who have attained heaven.

All Saints' Day was formally started by

SAFELY HOME

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly
Trod the valley of the shade?
Oh! but Jesus' love illumined
Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me
In that way so hard to tread;
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still:
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth—
You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!
